Fattoria Petrini

Organic extra virgin olive oil with a functional specialty range

A family-run olive farm in Monte San Vito, Marche, with its own groves, mill, and bottling operation.

U.S. BUYER PORTFOLIO

A profile of Petrini Plus® and Fattoria Petrini's olive oil range.

Producer profile

From the grove to the bottle

Fattoria Petrini is a family-run organic olive farm in Monte San Vito, in Italy’s Marche region. The producer describes an integrated operation with its own olive groves, oil mill, and bottling plant, keeping production under the family’s control from harvest through bottling.

Featured products

PETRINI PLUS®	Organic extra virgin olive oil enriched with vitamins D3, K1, and B6. The producer describes fresh olives from its own groves, processed at its mill in Monte San Vito. A food-based functional oil for buyer programs seeking a differentiated specialty product.
RAFFAELLO 1483®	Extra virgin olive oil enriched with vitamins D, B6, and B12, as presented by the producer. A second functional-oil concept within Fattoria Petrini’s portfolio.
ALTRI TEMPI	Organic Marche IGP extra virgin olive oil. See current producer materials for available formats and product detail.

Producer statements about nutrition and health are summarized as product positioning. Any U.S. label or advertising claims should be confirmed against current product documentation and applicable requirements.
